WELCOME TO THE TRAVEL ENGLISH BOOKLET

This booklet will teach you the words and expressions you need to travel to an English-speaking country.

- Learn over 500 useful words and expressions for travelling abroad.
- 40 topic areas covering a wide range of typical situations.
- Over 400 images to help you learn the words and expressions.
- More than 30 dialogues so you can hear the language in action.

There are five key features to this booklet:

1 Key language
The language in these booklets has been carefully selected so you'll only learn the most important words and expressions.

2 Images
The photos and illustrations will help you understand the key words by creating an association between the images and the language.

3 Dialogues
The dialogues will improve your listening and pronunciation skills. They'll also show you how the language is used in real-life situations.

4 Topic areas
By organising the language into topic areas, it'll be easier for you to remember the words and expressions.

5 Useful expressions
The useful expressions are ready-to-go and can be used directly in a whole range of typical situations.

Lenny has just arrived in London. He's a bit lost and so he decides to ask a passer-by for directions.

Lenny: Erm, excuse me, I'm trying to find a pub called the Cock & Bull. Could you point me in the right direction?

George: Ah... the Cock & Bull. I know it well. Excellent pub.

Lenny: Oh, great. I'm new to the city and I'm supposed to meet a friend there, but I haven't got a clue where I am.

George: Right. Go straight ahead. Then, take the (1) _____ road on your left. That's Queen Street. Follow it until you pass a (2) _____, and then... No, hang on. That's not right.

Lenny: Oh... erm, I can ask someone else if you're not sure.

George: No, no. I know London like the back of my hand... OK. Ignore everything I just said. From here, you want to get onto Charles Street, which is parallel to this street. Then walk (3) _____ about 500 metres until you see an old (4) _____. Turn right at the church and... Wait a minute...

Lenny: I've got a map here...

George: I don't need a map. I've lived here all my life. And the Cock & Bull isn't far. Excellent pub, by the way. They do a fantastic steak and kidney pie... Or was it steak and mushroom? Anyway. Go about four hundred metres that way and when you get to a (5) _____, hang a left. Walk for another two minutes and you'll see a (6) _____ on the opposite side of the road. The pub is just next to the bank. You can't miss it.

Lenny: Great! Thank you!

George: No, hold on... That's where the pub used to be. It moved 15 years ago.

Lenny: Maybe I should ask someone else.

George: No, no, I'm your man. I practically live at the Bear & Bull.

Lenny: You mean the Cock & Bull.

George: No, the Bear & Bull.

Lenny: I'm trying to get to the Cock & Bull.

George: The Cock & Bull? No idea! Never heard of it! Goodbye!
